

Comparative and International Law

Undergraduate Letter of Specialization

Legal Studies Program, Department of Political Science, University of Massachusetts Amherst

The Legal Studies Program announces a Letter of Specialization in Comparative and International Law. A letter of specialization can be cited as a credential on resumes, personal statements and in letters of recommendation. It represents completion of significant coursework in the socio-legal inquiry of comparative and international law. All coursework must carry at least 3 credits and be taken for a letter grade. Students must maintain a cumulative average GPA of 2.0 across the five courses required.

REQUIREMENT: 5 APPROVED COURSES WHICH FULFILL THE REQUIREMENTS FOR THE LETTER OF SPECIALIZATION IN COMPARATIVE AND INTERNATIONAL LAW

Course #	Applicable Legal Studies Courses	Completed (x) or In Progress (IP)
370	Comparative Law and Society
393LG	Law and Global Migration
497I	The Irish Peace Process
497II	The Irish Peace Process: After the Good Friday Agreements
392T	Transitional Justice
375	Human Rights and Wrongs
391WC	War Crimes Tribunals
397RP	Russian Politics, Law and Society
397K	Human Trafficking
	Law-Related Liberal Arts or Other Approved Course (one allowed):

One class can be applied to the requirements by taking a course that has been pre-approved and is listed below as a Law-Related Liberal Arts class for the Legal Studies Program. Please note that you will need to go through normal enrollment channels with these classes. Inclusion on this list does not give you any priority in admission or the ability to circumvent another department's pre-requisites or entrance requirements. Other courses at UMass, the Five Colleges, and elsewhere may be used to fulfill this requirement only with the approval of the Comparative and International Law Letter of Specialization Point Person as listed on the website. When requesting approval of an unlisted course, please be prepared to share a copy of the course syllabus with the Point Person.

COURSE APPROVALS

_____ (name of course) has been approved for inclusion in the Comparative and International Law Letter of Specialization in the Legal Studies Program.

_____ (signature of Dr. Lauren McCarthy) _____ (date)

VERIFICATION OF COMPLETION

_____ (student name) _____ (ID number) has fulfilled the requirements for the Comparative and International Law Letter of Specialization in the Legal Studies Program.

_____ (signature of Legal Studies Advisor) _____ (date)

Comparative and International Law

Undergraduate Letter of Specialization

Legal Studies Program, Department of Political Science, University of Massachusetts Amherst

Courses listed below have been pre-approved for the Letter of Specialization in Comparative and International Law and are also Law-Related Liberal Arts classes for the Legal Studies Program

Please note that you may request approval for additional courses at UMass and the Five Colleges

UMASS AMHERST

German 371	Crime and Criminals in Modern German Culture
History 332	British History Crime and Punishment
Judaic 350	Jewish Law and Society
Polisci 253	International Environmental Politics and Policies
Polisci 356	International Law
Polisci 359	International Political Economy
Polisci 385	Comparative Public Policy
Polisci 391E	Rules of War
Soc 392R	Racialization and Immigration